

CHALMERS' LIFE & MISSION

We welcome you to worship at Chalmers. If you are a guest, visitor or newcomer to Chalmers we reach out to you with hospitality and friendship in Jesus' name. Please take a moment to fill in a guest card—available in the pew holder or from the welcome table. Completed cards may be placed in the offering plate, in the box on the welcome table, or given to Rev. John.

Please note that some fellow worshippers are sensitive to perfumes. We ask that you consider keeping Chalmers scent-free. Thank you.

There will be a time of refreshments and fellowship in the lower hall following worship. The striped mugs at coffee hour are for visitors. Please help our visitors feel welcome.

August 11: Spreading the gospel message

Just as the early disciples travelled to share the good news of the gospel, Cariboo Presbyterian Church is working to spread the love of Christ to rural and remote regions of British Columbia, with support from Presbyterians Sharing. The "southern" part of the ministry is made up of five house churches around the 100 Mile House and Lac La Hache areas. Combined, the house churches reach more than 150 people who reside in areas that are considered beyond the reach of the traditional church. Bruce Wilcox has served as the southern region's leader for the past several years and credits the ministry's consistent growth to the work of the Holy Spirit and the desire for God's family to gather in community despite geographical challenges.

SPEAKING OF STEWARDSHIP

August 11

All Christians are but God's stewards. Everything we have is on loan from the Lord, entrusted to us for a while to use in serving Him.

John Macarthur, pastor, author

Applications for ASSISTANCE TO ATTEND CAMP KINTAIL this summer are available on the table in the narthex. Please pick one up if we can help.

Have you considered signing up for PAR (PRE AUTHORIZED REMITTANCE)? It's easy to do, makes consistent offerings simple and can be stopped or adjusted easily. Offering is withdrawn directly from your bank account monthly. Forms are available in the narthex, or speak to Wendy in the office.

LIBRARY NEWS

Hidden Places – by Lynn Austin

This story takes place in 1930 when money is short, and work hard to come by. Eliza Wyatt, a young widow with three children, has inherited a family orchard and after the death of her father-in-law is not sure just how she is going to make a success of running the orchard. She and her children are praying for helping angels to come along, when a wanderer knocks at their door and asks for any odd jobs he can do for a place to bunk down and a few meals. His name happens to be Gabriel Harper ..... Well with a name like that the children are sure this is indeed their angel. A wonderful story of the struggles families went through at that time, of family love and loyalty, and lots of hard work! I loved this story.
