The Blessing

Musical Postlude

We are God's people

Words: Bryan Jeffery Leech, Music: Johannes Brahms
Arr.: Fred Bock

We are God's people, the chosen of the Lord, Born of the Spirit, established by the word;
Our cornerstone is Christ alone,
and strong in him we stand:
Oh let us live transparently, and walk heart to heart and hand in hand.

We are God's loved ones,
the bride of Christ our Lord,
For we have known it, the love of God outpoured;
Now let us learn how to return the gift of love once given:
Oh let us share each joy and care and live with a zeal that pleases heaven.

We are the body of which the Lord is head, called to obey him, now risen from the dead;
he wills us be a family, diverse yet truly one:
oh let us freely give our gifts, and so shall God's work on earth be done.

We are a temple, the Spirit's dwelling place, formed in great weakness,
a cup to hold God's grace;
alone, we die, for on its own each ember loses fire:
yet joined in one the flame burns on to give warmth and light, and to inspire.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom,
and the power and the glory,
forever.
Amen

Special Praise

Carl Gustav Bobert
Translation: Stuart K. Hine

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder Thy power throughout the universe displayed

[Refrain]

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

When through the woods, and forest glades I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees
When I look down, from lofty mountain grandeur
And see the brook, and feel the gentle breeze

And when I think, that God, His Son not sparing Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in That on the Cross, my burden gladly bearing He bled and died to take away my sin

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration
And then proclaim: "My God, how great Thou art!"

We give thee but thine own

Words: William Walsham How Music: Konig's harmonischer Liederschatz
Arr.: William Henry Havergal

We give thee but thine own, whate'er the gift may be;
all that we have it thine alone,
a trust, O Lord, from thee.

May we thy bounties thus as stewards true receive,
and gladly, as thou blestest us,
to thee our first-fruits give.

To comfort and to bless,
to find a balm for woe,
to tend the lonely in distress is angels' work below.

The captive to release,
to God the lost to bring,
to teach the way of life and peace,
it is a Christ-like thing,

and we believe thy word, though dim our faith may be:
whate'er for thine we do, O Lord, we do it unto thee.

Making Space for a New Generation of Believers

The Well Church in Mississauga, Ont., started with a group of only 13 people. They were drawn together by their deep love of Jesus and a desire to share that love with others. Inspired by a vision to become a welcoming space for second-generation immigrants, they developed a style of evangelism and worship that spoke to those they desired to reach. Since the congregation started worshipping together three years ago, their community has grown and has become a home for many young people who had strayed from the church. Please pray for the Well Church and the many other churches in The Presbyterian Church in Canada that are making space for a new generation of believers. Presbyterians Sharing supports new faith communities

LIBRARY NEWS

Missing Isaac— by Valerie Fraser Luesse

A very interesting book. It takes place in a southern town called Glory at a time when colour and status were unmixable! People of colour lived and stayed in their own area, and white folks did not travel in those areas. Pete was a young boy whose grandfather was wealthy and owned a lot of land. Cotton was the crop that was grown on this land and Isaac's family were the folks who cultivated and picked this cotton. There is an accident and Pete's father is killed, but Isaac is the one who tries to save him. There is a very special relationship between Pete and Isaac and both families love the relationship between these two. Isaac disappears and no-one seems to know anything about where he is, what happened to him or even if he is alive or dead.

The relationships in this story are heart-warming (in the most part) and heart-wrenching at times.

Yes – a very interesting book.

Have you considered signing up for PAR (PRE AUTHORIZED REMITTANCE)? It's easy to do, makes consistent offerings simple and can be stopped or adjusted easily. Offering is withdrawn directly from your bank account monthly. Forms are available in the narthex, or speak to Wendy .
