

CHALMERS' LIFE & MISSION

We welcome you to worship at Chalmers. If you are a guest, visitor or newcomer to Chalmers we reach out to you with hospitality and friendship in Jesus' name. Please take a moment to fill in a guest card—available in the pew holder or from the welcome table. Completed cards may be placed in the offering plate, in the box on the welcome table, or given to Rev. John.

Please note that some fellow worshippers are sensitive to perfumes. We ask that you consider keeping Chalmers scent-free. Thank you.

There will be a time of refreshments and fellowship in the lower hall following worship. The striped mugs at coffee hour are for visitors. Please help our visitors feel welcome.

September 1: Learning and healing

For students in Central India, higher education is too often a distant dream. Many nurses who aspire to enhance their skills cannot afford the tuition. With support from Presbyterians Sharing, the MIBE Graduate School for Nurses in Indore offers partial scholarships which help to make advanced education accessible. This Christian school offers a Post-Basic Bachelor of Nursing degree, equipping men and women to become educators, administrators and leaders in nursing. It even attracts students from other faiths, as they appreciate the emphasis on academic excellence, learning in a collegial environment and compassion in health care. As anyone who has been ill knows, compassion and competence are essential skills to care for the whole person.

SPEAKING OF STEWARDSHIP

LIBRARY NEWS

Traces of Guilt by Dee Henderson, An Evie Blackwell Cold Case

Dee Henderson is one of my favourite murder mystery writers. I find she manages to keep you guessing and interested for the whole book. This is no exception. Evie is a top investigator for the Illinois State Police and has been assigned to the small town of Carin to look into solving a cold case. Here she meets Gabriel Thane who is the local sheriff and prides himself on being good at his job. He tries to be open about Evie "moving in on his job", but as they talk and do some research into a couple of cold cases, he realizes that she is very good at her job, and that she brings a new perspective as she looks at the cases from a different angle. Great story – definitely a page-turner.
