The Beatitudes, by Buettell

And Jesus went up into a mountain, and his disciples came unto him, And he taught them, saying:
Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the Kingdom of heav'n. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which hunger for righteousness for they, for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they are the children of God. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you for my sake, Rejoice, and be exceeding glad, for great is your reward in heaven. Rejoice, and be glad, in heav'n is your reward. Amen, amen.

Please consider sitting closer to THE FRONT OF THE SANCTUARY, particularly on the north side. When watching the service on the livestream, the sanctuary can look empty even with a full congregation because the front six pews are so bare. This does not look appealing to people who may be searching for a church home.

February 17: World Day of Social Justice (Feb. 20)

Ayishetu Abu had not seen her family in eight years. She was living at the Gambaga Outcast Home in Ghana—a shelter for women facing accusations of witchcraft. In many Ghanaian communities, there is a tendency to suspect witchcraft as the cause of crop failure, the death of a child or any other unexplained event. In addition to improving living conditions at the shelter, Presbyterian World Service & Development works to foster social acceptance among these communities and educate village leaders about human rights, mental illness, disabilities and other health issues often mistakenly attributed to witchcraft. To ensure more women like Ayishetu can embrace opportunities that are the right of every person, PWS&D will continue working for justice and peace.

PWS&D promotes peace and tolerance

LIBRARY NEWS

Hidden Identity Trilogy – by Lynette Eason

No one to Trust
Nowhere to turn
No place to hide

This is a new author to me, but she writes very well, with mysteries that leave you wondering until the last pages of each book. Each book is a complete story, but they are best read in order since you get to know some of the main characters that way. They are very fast moving novels that don't seem to give you time to catch your breath before the story is off in a different direction.

No one to Trust – by Lynette Eason Hidden Identity Trilogy #1

Summer Abernathy wakes up one morning to find her husband missing, three men in her home intent on finding him, and the life she's been living based on a lie. The search for her husband --- and answers --- takes Summer ever deeper into a world of organized crime where people are used one moment and discarded the next. And with her deepest relationship of trust already shattered, Summer doesn't know who to believe.

Fast moving, exciting story where you get to know the characters in a special group whose purpose is to help people get their shattered lives back on track!

Read and enjoy!
