

CHALMERS' LIFE & MISSION

We welcome you to worship at Chalmers. If you are a guest, visitor or newcomer to Chalmers we reach out to you with hospitality and friendship in Jesus' name. Please take a moment to fill in a guest card—available in the pew holder or from the welcome table. Completed cards may be placed in the offering plate, in the box on the welcome table, or given to Rev. John.

There will be a time of refreshments and fellowship in the lower hall following worship. The striped mugs at coffee hour are for visitors. Please help our visitors feel welcome.

This morning we welcome Wilma Boyce to lead worship. Wilma graduated from Huron University College at UWO in 2013 with a Master of Divinity and has since then enjoyed leading worship services in London and area Presbyterian churches. She is currently on staff at Oakridge Presbyterian Church in the area of Pastoral Care and Adult Ministry. She also provides pastoral care for a two-point charge and leads worship services in two retirement residences, including a Bible study in one of them. Wilma is thankful to have three sons, three daughters-in-law, and eight grandchildren living in close proximity to her as she loves to spend time with them. Her passion is to be engaged in the building and nurturing of relationships with the Lord and with people.

Declaration of Pardon:

One: Hear the Good News! Who is in a position to condemn?

All: Only Christ, and Christ died for us, Christ rose for us, Christ reigns in power for us, Christ prays for us.

Scripture reading: Psalm 72:1-7

One: Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to a king's son.

All: May he judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice.

One: May the mountains yield prosperity for the people, and the hills, in righteousness.

All: May he defend the cause of the poor of the people, give deliverance to the needy, and crush the oppressor.

One: May he live while the sun endures, and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.

All: May he be like rain that falls on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth.

One: In his days may righteousness flourish and peace abound,

All: until the moon is no more.

Musical Postlude

Carol of the Brightest Star by Winnagene Hatch

Out of the East, they travelled far, Followed the light of the brightest star: Three Wise Men came to Bethlehem, Jesus the Christ, to find. This was a journey long and cold, guided by prophecy long foretold. Onward they came, and faltered not, led by the brightest star.

Happy were they the child to see, sleeping upon His mother's knee. Shepherds and angels gathered round, filling the air with joyous sound: Glory to God! Glory to God! Love is the gift that God sent down: Love is the child of Bethlehem town. Follow the brightest star!

Out of the East they travelled far, followed the light of the brightest star, bearing their gifts to Bethlehem: Gifts for the child so fair. Incense, myrrh and precious gold: gifts in the prophecy long foretold. There at His cradle bowing low, Each with a gift so rare.

January 5: Everyday acts of kindness

Recently the Rev. Tim Choi, minister at Edmonton Urban Native Ministry, encountered unexpected grace after a hard day. He and his wife, Hillary, were busy preparing for an evening event. Tim was planning the music and Hillary was setting up for the meal when Wendy and her family came through the door. Wendy had a feeling that their help might be needed! Suddenly everything was different, with extra hands to make the work lighter. Wendy and her daughters made bannock to share, and Wendy offered to come and volunteer every week. Sometimes we ignore the small ways that God cares for us. The community at Edmonton Urban Native Ministry is learning together how to see God's grace in everyday acts of kindness.

LIBRARY NEWS

Private Justice – by Terri Blackstock

Newpointe 911 – Book 1

A dark shadow of fear has fallen over Newpointe, Louisiana. First one, then another of the town firemen's wives has been murdered, a third has barely escaped an attempt on her life. Incredible as it seems, a serial killer is stalking this sleepy little southern community. And Mark Branning's wife may be next on the list. Mark is determined to protect her. But keeping Allie alive won't be easy -- not with their own marriage already dying a bitter death. Unless they renew their commitment to each other and to God, someone else may settle their problems . . . Permanently. And time to decide is running out.

Terri Blackstock writes a very good, exciting murder mystery .... And this series is no exception.
