

CHALMERS' LIFE & MISSION

We welcome you to worship at Chalmers. If you are a guest, visitor or newcomer to Chalmers we reach out to you with hospitality and friendship in Jesus' name. Please take a moment to fill in a guest card—available in the pew holder or from the welcome table. Completed cards may be placed in the offering plate, in the box on the welcome table, or given to Rev. John.

There will be a time of refreshments and fellowship in the lower hall following worship. The striped mugs at coffee hour are for visitors. Please help our visitors feel welcome.

Please note that some fellow worshippers are sensitive to perfumes. We ask that you consider keeping Chalmers scent-free. Thank you.

July 14: A ministry of presence

When 35cm of rain fell over 5 days in Malawi in March, the presence of PCC mission staff was invaluable. Vivian and Blair Bertrand gave us first-hand accounts of the devastation experienced by over 900,000 Malawians. They recounted the harsh realities, faced especially by subsistence farmers who lost their entire crops. They grieved together with their friends and colleagues when roofs collapsed, walls caved in, latrines were washed away, and family members died. Amid the darkness, Vivian, working with Churches Action in Relief and Development (CARD), has been busy writing proposals for CARD's relief efforts. Proposals include providing emergency items such as food, plastic sheets, cooking pots, water buckets and chlorine to treat water and agricultural support to help people reclaim their livelihoods after the loss of crops and livestock. Presbyterians Sharing supports the Bertrands whose presence opens a window into this widespread tragedy.

SPEAKING OF STEWARDSHIP

RIDES NEEDED TO CAMP: London Community Chaplaincy is looking for rides for a number of children to get to overnight church camps up in Lambton Shores (about an hour's drive from London) in the month of August. If you are able to help please contact Jacqueline Nathaniel or the church office.

LIBRARY NEWS

The Witnesses – by Robert Whitlow

An excellent, exciting book that starts in Germany in the war. Frank House (originally Franz Haus) is a member of the German army who has a gift. He sees events happening before they actually happen. His gift is used by his superiors in the army, but eventually Franz realizes that he is very uncomfortable with the results from this gift. He changes his name, and with a little help from a family he meets in his travels, he changes his whole life. He emigrates to the US and spends a long time building a life that he feels comfortable in. But of course his past starts to catch up with him, and to interfere with his life, his family and his peace of mind.

Robert Whitlow rights a very good mystery story...and this one falls right into that category. Well written, exciting – keeps you guessing right to the last page!

A colorful poster for the Chalmers Fun Fair. The background has a sunburst pattern. At the top, it says "Lots of free fun!" and lists "Inflatables • Games • Cotton Candy • Face Painting". The main title is "Chalmers Fun Fair" in large, bold letters. Below that, it says "When? Thursday, July 18th 5-8pm" and "Where? Chalmers Presbyterian Church 342 Pond Mills Road". At the bottom, it says "Hotdogs for $0.50" and "www.ChalmersLondon.com".

You SAY by Lauren Daigle

I keep fighting voices in my mind
that say I'm not enough
Every single lie that tells me
I will never measure up
Am I more than just the sum of every high and every low?
Remind me once again just who I am,
because I need to know (ooh oh)

You say I am loved when I can't feel a thing
You say I am strong when I think I am weak
You say I am held when I am falling short
When I don't belong, oh You say that I am Yours
And I believe (I), oh I believe (I)
What You say of me (I)
I believe

The only thing that matters now is everything You think of me
In You I find my worth,
in You I find my identity, (ooh oh)

You say I am loved when I can't feel a thing
You say I am strong when I think I am weak
And You say I am held when I am falling short
When I don't belong, oh You say that I am Yours
And I believe (I), oh I believe (I)
What You say of me (I)
Oh, I believe

Taking all I have and now
I'm laying it at Your feet
You have every failure God,
and You'll have every victory, (ooh oh)

You say I am loved when I can't feel a thing
You say I am strong when I think I am weak
You say I am held when I am falling short
When I don't belong, oh You say that I am Yours
And I believe (I), oh I believe (I)
What You say of me (I)

I believe
Oh I believe (I), yes I believe (I)
What You say of me (I)
Oh I believe (oh)
